Mission Statement
Canterbury School of Florida educates and nurtures the whole child in mind, body, and spirit in preparation for college and an honorable life as a responsible steward of our world.

Musical Theater and Acting Instructor

Canterbury School of Florida is seeking an experienced and dedicated Middle and Upper School Musical Theater and Acting Instructor to teach multiple levels of musical theater and acting courses for the 2024 - 2025 school year. This instructor will collaborate closely with the other performing arts faculty and should be able to assume directorship of the various school productions throughout the year, as well as other faculty duties that support the Knowlton Campus.

In addition, this teacher will have a commitment to the School’s mission and an interest in community involvement through participation in school-wide committees and activities. It is expected that each faculty member contributes to a positive culture by building collaborative, collegial, and respectful relationships with colleagues and overtly supporting fellow teachers and administrators.

Skills and Abilities

- Facilitate dramatic and vocal process-based student learning experiences
- Experience with both musical theater and acting instruction and performance
- Differentiate instruction and expectations in age-appropriate ways
- Engage and inspire students to challenge themselves and take risks.
- Excellent communication skills, both oral and written
- Proficient at designing and using assessments to guide instruction
- Commitment to professional development
- Proficient in educational technology

Educational and Other Requirements

- Bachelor’s Degree required. A Master’s degree in education or performing arts is preferred.
- Successful completion of pre-employment background screening, drug testing, and safety training required.

Interested applicants should send a letter of interest and resume to Donnamarie Hehn, Head of Knowlton Campus, at employment@canterburyflorida.org
