Remarks by the Administration and Board

Board President Michael Sapricono spoke about the area of the District's Budget Brochure concerning candidate information. He explained that in the past with the exception of 2007, candidate names are not printed in the brochure. The names of the individuals whose seats are up for election are named. The incumbent information is also included in the District's legal notice. The publication is generally set and ready to go prior to knowing who the candidates will be. Mr. Sapricono stated that he is going to recommend in the future that we will not name any of the candidates in the brochure nor we will name the incumbents in the brochure. He also stated that since our trustee seats are at large seats, the District will not name the incumbents in the legal notice as well.

Chris Venator, attorney for the District, explained the legalities concerning publication of names in notices depending on whether the seats are at large or for a particular seat.

Mr. DelGiudice explained Board involvement in the preparation and finalization of the Budget Spotlight.
