Mr. Christopher Venator, Attorney

At 7:32 p.m., the President of the Board of Education opened the Public Hearing on the District-Wide School Safety Plan. As the first order of business, Board President Bruce Kahn led the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance.

OPEN PUBLIC HEARING ON DISTRICT-WIDE SCHOOL
SAFETY PLAN

Mr. Kahn advised that tonight there would be two meetings. The first would be the Public Hearing on the School Safety Plan and then after the Hearing is adjourned the Regular Board Meeting will begin.

OPENING REMARKS

Peter Cavassa, Director of School Facilities explained that the Public Hearing on the Safety Plan takes place each year as required by the State. He advised that last year was a big year when the State changed the format and now it is pretty much a formality. He went on to say that it is on a renewal and the Plan stayed the same. He closed by stating the District-wide Safety Plan was posted on the website.
