Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I--
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Drew:
You did what with my truck? You can't wear that to church. Turn that *%@ thing down. Don't make me stop this car. I don't know how Batman makes his ears look like that. Your room is a wreck. Get your elbows off the table. Wash your hands...with soap. Stuff is growing in your bathroom. It's too cold for shorts. "No" is a complete sentence. Get a haircut. So why couldn't you make an A? That's funny, this wad of paper in the dryer looks like it might have been a report card in its previous life. Dry your hands on a towel, not your pants. Don't take my truck off road tonight. No, deodorant does not go behind your knees. You're not setting one foot outta this house until your attitude improves. How do you lose a coat? If you don't have time to do it right, when are you gonna have time to do it over? Don't run with those scissors. Don't tell your mother I did that. Shut the door when you're in there. This is our vacation and you're gonna enjoy it whether you like it or not. Shave. Asparagus is good for you...just try one bite. Well, when you get to be Elvis you can buy yourself one. Slow Down. XYZ. What part of "No" don't you understand? Did you think the truck was gonna just float across the pond? Don't make me take you outta this restaurant. Did you lock the door when you came in? You keep crossin' your eyes your eyes like that and they are gonna freeze that way. Flush that thing. Stand up straight. Nothing good ever happened to a teenager after midnight. How come you never have any homework? Your brother and sister never gave us any problems. Don't fall down and hurt yourself. It's called 4-wheel drive, not 4-wheel flotation. When was the last time you brushed those teeth? Don't mention this to the preacher. Tuck your shirttail in. Just you wait till your daddy gets home. We never did that when we were kids. I don't care what Harper does, don't put that pea up your nose. So if everybody else jumped off a cliff, would you follow? Where do you think you are going with those matches?

CONGRATULATIONS!

You survived our "guidance." You're on your own after this. We love you to pieces. Love, Mom, Dad, Brad, & Holly, Amy & Jay, Mamaw & Papaw, Carley, Mandy, Toby & Maggie.

May you always have enough success to make you proud, enough trials to keep you strong,
 enough luck to make you smile at life,
 enough work to keep you challenged, enough of all life's treasures
 to keep you truly happy.

CONGRATULATIONS

I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean.
Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens. Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance,
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance, I hope you dance....

This year at Oxford High School has been one of good times which will soon be fond memories in the hearts of many OHS students. It has been filled with everything from tests, completing term papers, pep rallies and games, and trying to get teachers off of the subject of their daily lesson plans. We hope that all of the hard work that we have put into this yearbook will help you to relive these memories. Another year has come and gone at Oxford High, but if at some time in the future, looking through this annual brings back memories of days spent here, then this annual will have achieved its purpose.
