One teacher at Oxford High School has shown a great deal of concern for the needs of individual students. She has many talents and interests, but we are fortunate that she has chosen teaching as her profession. To show our appreciation to Mrs. Jo Hodge, we dedicate the 1979 Flashback to her.

CONNIE THOMPSON
PRESIDENT

The OHS Student Council has been a highly active group during the 78-79 school year. The Student Council started its activities with homecoming week. Events such as a jello eating contest, sponge throwing, and an alumni reception were brought to an end with an exciting halftime show which ended with a spectacular fireworks display. A frustrating powder-puff football game, in which the Juniors and Seniors fought to a 6-6 tie, followed in November.

The Student Council entered a float in the annual Christmas parade for the first time and won 2nd place for the entry. Creative Christmas decorations livened the halls as the holiday season neared. After the holidays, the Council was back at work. While rewriting its own constitution the Council began work on its numerous spring projects. The Gong Show and Field Day were the highlights of the 2nd semester.

BRETT BARTLETT
VICE-PRESIDENT

Besides all these special projects, the Student Council sponsored many year-round projects such as the OHS Bookstore, the hall calendar, and several community service projects.

SENIORS OF 1979

Hollywood, here I come.

Dan'el Boone???

Miracles NEVER cease to happen at OHS!

Here are the boys, but where are the men?

S-E-N-I-O-R-S Seniors — Seniors, YES! YES! YES!!!

So, this is what they do in Fused Math.

Heidi Strikes Again

Pack them in, Rochelle.

SENIORS DO IT BETTER!!

"... the world is black; the world is white.
Together they learn to read and write."

Gee, your hair smells terrific!

Hey boys, that isn't how to pick up a girl.

Electricity
Wisely

Conserving electricity and all energy is not just a temporary measure to relieve a temporary problem. If we want to help assure these children and their children an adequate energy supply, we must use all energy wisely from now on.

Begin in your home with your daily living habits. We have free booklets to show you how to insulate and weatherize your home to conserve heating and cooling, and how to use your hot water and your appliances efficiently.

Begin saving for their energy future now.

BEST WISHES FROM A FRIEND

COMPLI- MENTS OF A FRIEND

The 1979 FLASHBACK staff has spent much time, effort, and money to bring you this annual. I would like to thank everyone who has helped to make this year's annual a reality: Mrs. Hodge, our advisor; Susan Partridge, business manager; the energetic staff; and the administration of Oxford High, who have been so cooperative. I would like to say a special thank-you to you, the students, who showed up so many times to have pictures taken and retaken.

I hope that we have been able to capture the essence of 1978-79 in this yearbook. As time goes by you will cherish memories of this year more and more. We hope that the 1979 FLASHBACK has truly recorded these memories for you.

Patty Wall
