Foreword

With the completion of another school year at Oxford High School, we hope that the Colonel Clan will serve as a mirror of the year in reminiscence. We have attempted to portray the typical O.H.S. situation.

All "Colonels" remember the wild excitement of the first touchdown of the season, the moments of conversation with friends, and the countless hours of study both in and out of classes. It is our wish that this annual will contribute to these happy moments and that you will be able to share these experiences with others.

To the many people who have so willingly helped make the book a success, we extend our most grateful appreciation.

We now present to you the 1966 COLONEL CLAN.

Student Body President's Message

Fellow students:

As the end of this school year draws near I hope that each of you will look back with pride at your accomplishments, both individual and collective. This past year has certainly been the best that our school has ever seen. In view of this fact, it is easy to understand why the greatest part of our memories are of achievement and victory.

At the beginning of this school year it was stated that you had the potential to make this one of the greatest schools in the state. During this year that potentiality was made a reality. You have all worked hard and every one of you is to be commended for a job well done. You have displayed a spirit truly worthy of the Colonel. Through this spirit you have established a remarkable reputation for yourselves and your school. You will never regret what you have done for ● H.S.

Thank you for permitting me to serve as your president for the past year. I have never before had the opportunity to take part in a more meaningful experience.

Your Heritage at O.H.S.

The heritage of an Oxford High School student is a rich one. The ambitions of many educators brought O.H.S. into being and have strengthened her with the passing years. The ideals of today will determine her future. An O.H.S. student must strive to establish definite goals and to make his dreams a reality.

*A Heritage of . . .
Unity . . .*

which plays an integral part in school life at O.H.S. . . .

Dignity . . .

which lies in the student's sense of pride in his school, community, and nation . . .

Valor . . .

which stands on the battleground where brothers fought against each other and died for the causes in which they believed . . .

Leadership . . .

which exerts great influence on all students . . .

which tells us to move forward as we seek new horizons, knowing that O.H.S. will forever remain a part of us . . .

We're the Class of '66!

As this year draws to a close, we look back over our years at OHS and find them filled with many happy memories. The bonfires, football and basketball games, band trips, and dances will always be a part of us.

As we prepare to leave the halls of OHS, we realize that she has prepared us for many events still to come. We will leave many friends when we leave OHS, but they will always remain a part of us--THE CLASS OF '66!

Mr. Bradley Sanders

Bite your tongue, Snake!

I'm an Ivory Snow baby.

Too young to smoke, and too green to burn.

Out for a Sunday stroll.

But I can't move-- my pants are hung!

"Surfer Girl"

Beep Beep Sho-o-o-o-m!

Boy meets girl!

"Granny"

"Ma, my mule's done gone!"

Baby blue eyes.

"Heil Fondren!"

"Bare"

Don't let go!

"Mama, here comes Philip now!"

Just a little batch of home brew.

Santa Claus sure was good to the children at 328 Van Buren this year.

"Well, I'm hunting Easter eggs. . . Wha'd ya think I was doing?"

"Red's Taxi--need a ride?"

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

"Are there any last requests?"

"You didn't, did you Brenda?"

It was bound to happen sooner or later!

"I'll just take my ball and go home."

"We want to be loved."

"It's no use!"

"C. I."

Absent-Minded Me.

A girl's gotta get a tan someway.

"Cheese"

Home is the Hunter

"But Mama, I don't want to swim the English Channel!"

I'm just a country boy.

"I've got a great big Brownie smile!"

"We're the Class That Really Clicks, We're the Class of '66!"

1965 Oxford High School Colonels

FIRST ROW, Left to Right: T. Vinson, T. Boatright, W. Taylor, D. Parks, A. Kiamie, A. Cotton, B. Rikard, L. Davis, D. Butts, E. Hodge, M. Hobbs, W. Abernethy, J. Noyes, R. Tubbs, SECOND ROW: Coach Calhoun, R. Hobby, B. Bryant, R. Hipp, B. Howorth, L. Turner, P. Tatum, R. Torrance, L. Christman, J. Johnson, B. Ivy, T. Stone, J. Poole, D. Davidson, Manager P. Smith, THIRD ROW: Manager R. Lewis, C. Ables, K. Atkinson, D. Elmore, B. King, J. Brown, R. Wolfe, A. Wylie, J. Windham, J. Aron, D. Barfield, B. Smith, D. Downing, Manager S. Owens, Coach Browne, Coach Sanders.

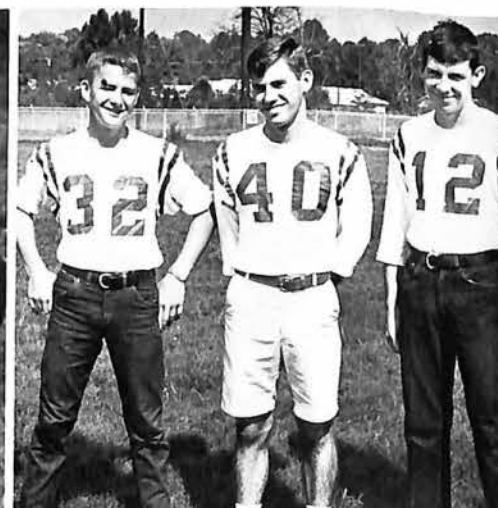

In the years to come the Colonel's fighting spirit and desire to win will long be remembered by the coaches, fans, and players. Though their record shows one defeat and two deadlocks, not once did the Colonels lose their determination or lower their ideals of sportsmanship.

Colonel interior linemen, led by "Snake" Christman, smother the New Albany quarterback for a big loss, as Stone, Butts, and Davidson move in.

Junior end, Jim Poole, adds an extra point against Amory as quarterback Tommy Vinson holds.

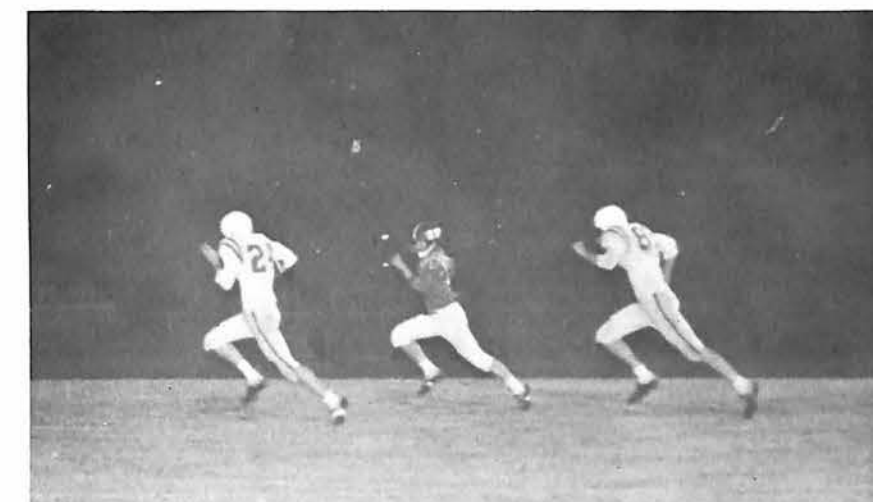

Quarterback Tommy Vinson plunges through the New Albany line for a TD as Colonel linemen casually look on.

Senior halfback, Mit Hobbs hauls in a Vinson pass against Batesville for the first touchdown of the season.

Superintendent's Message

Mr. Wayne C. Leech

The pathways through high school are memorable ones. Education is in itself a wide and heavily traveled pathway. There are many by-paths in this pathway - each leading to some goal set by those who are traveling upon it.

Just as some roads are unpaved, so are some pathways to success unpaved. There are many rough places along the way. However, if the goal is kept in mind, all difficulties can be surmounted, and the pathway will have served its purpose of furnishing the means of guidance.

It is my sincere hope that your experiences at Oxford High School have contributed to your growth. I also hope that you will continue growing as you take your places in our complex society.

It is with a deep sense of appreciation of your service, achievement, and promise for the future that we, the administration, express confidence and faith in each one of you.

Our best wishes go with you.

Oxford School Board
