The high school and the town we live in cannot be separated because they are so closely intertwined. The lives of students at OHS reflect the community, of the town, and the university. Our theme this year is "Reflections," and we open the 1985 Flashback with reflections from our hometown, Oxford.

The annual dedication is a time for the staff to honor a person who they feel has contributed greatly to the school and the student body. This year, the staff has chosen to dedicate the 1985 FLASHBACK to Mrs. Ann Jordan. Mrs. Jordan's cheery disposition and bright smile make the hassle of checking in and out of school a little easier. Her many years of hard work have helped to make Oxford High School run smoother. For the care and friendship she has shown to each person who has contact with O.H.S., we dedicate the 1985 FLASHBACK to Ann Jordan.

Elizabeth Cobb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cobb has demonstrated the qualities of an exceptional student at Oxford High School. She has been a big asset to the school. She is President of the Associated Student Government and the State President of the National Honor Society. She is also a member of Mu Alpha Theta, Anchor Club, and the OHS Chorus. She has received many awards including National Merit Semi-Finalist. Elizabeth's involvement in school and her bright personality have made her a well-liked and well-respected student at Oxford High School.

Mister and Miss Oxford High School

James Moak is the son of Drs. Franklin and Helen Moak. He has been a very active member of Student Council and was President of the Mississippi State Association of Student Councils his Junior year. REFLECTIONS OF FALL '84 . . .

Reflections Of Homecoming

O. H. S. Loves N. Y.

No, Clifton, Don't let him out, he's dangerous!

Do you want me to shave your head?

How dare you propose to me without getting down on your knees?

I'm a Sagittarius, what's your sign?

I am SCARED of that!!!

If I could only make this solution strong enough, I could make Sister Lois evaporate.

I've got Spirit, yes I do.

Hi! I'm your blind date!

Reflections of Spirit '84'

Have You Got That Spirit!?

Is this the room you said that candy was in?

Yes, our term papers are due tomorrow! Do we look like we care?

Hey Leah, Kathryn finally realized she forgot to brush her teeth!

Revive me with Vivarin!

Tony, now tell me you don't think I can put you in the garbage can!

Face it, Deck, your NOT number 1!

Now Joyce, I told you, you'd be embarrassed if you looked in the boys' locker room.

C'mon Adolf, Three's a crowd.

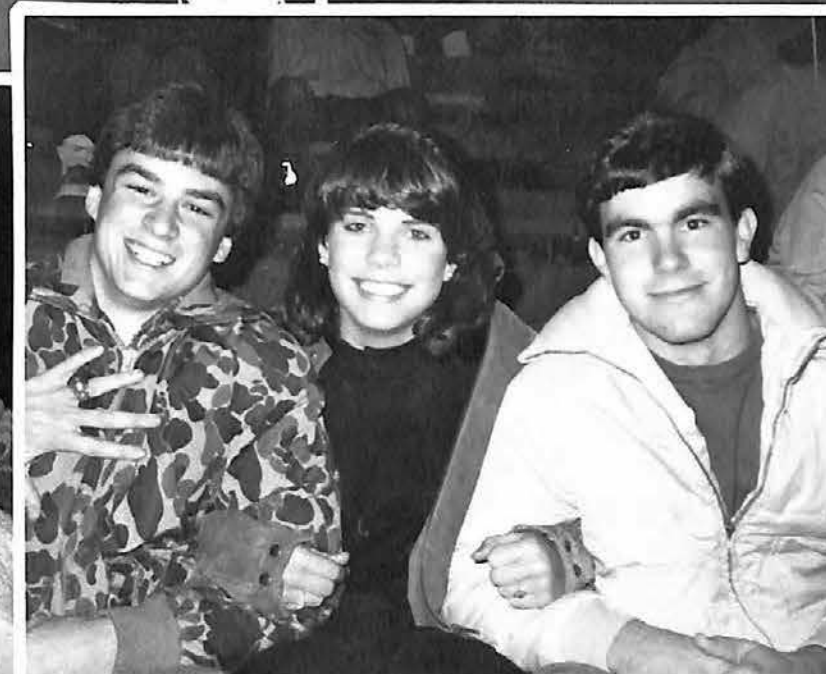

"I wear my sunglasses at night."

Flip you for a quarter?

Reflections Of Afterhours

Leave 8:00 to 2:45 Behind

Kathryn, Kathryn, Wherefore art thou, Kathryn?

The first Siamese triplets joined at the fingertips, ever to survive Oxford High.

Barbara, this is not the clubhouse!

Amazing! Julie is calm in a situation like this!

Sharon, Have you lost your sheep or are you just hopping from your tuffet?

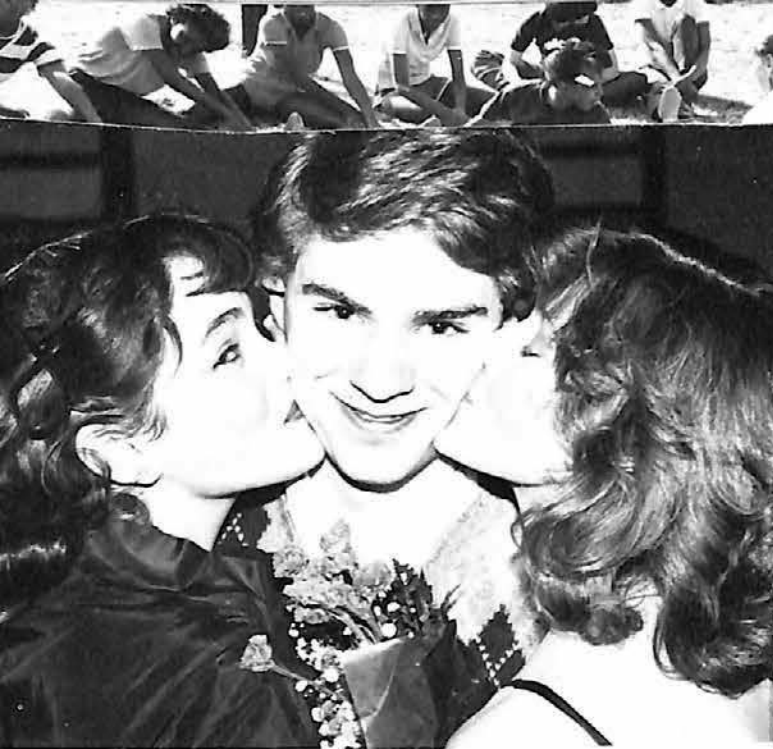

I'm going to try out for cheerleader next year.

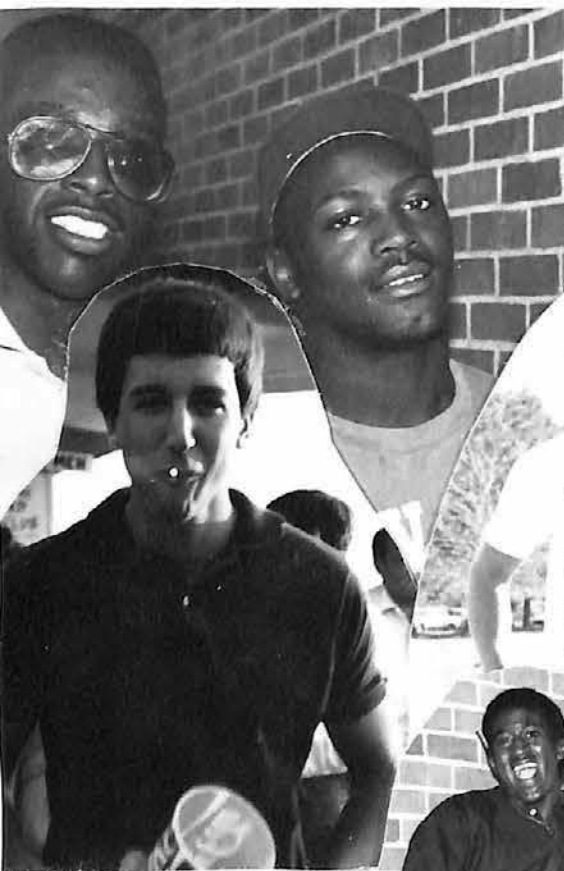

Don't you understand? I can't open my mouth or the fly will get out.

Seriously, Marcia, maybe you should just drop out of school.

The eighth wonder of the world — Harry without a smile!

Y'ALL!! I am just NERVOUS about Margaret's reputation.

They'll have fun, fun, fun, till her daddy takes the Triumph away!

The next GQ cover guys.

But Mike, I thought I was your one and only!

Pandemonium in the boy's bathroom.

Only in your wildest dreams, Chester.

Stir crazy from detention hall.

I can't believe you think YOU can defeat the three year's defending champion!

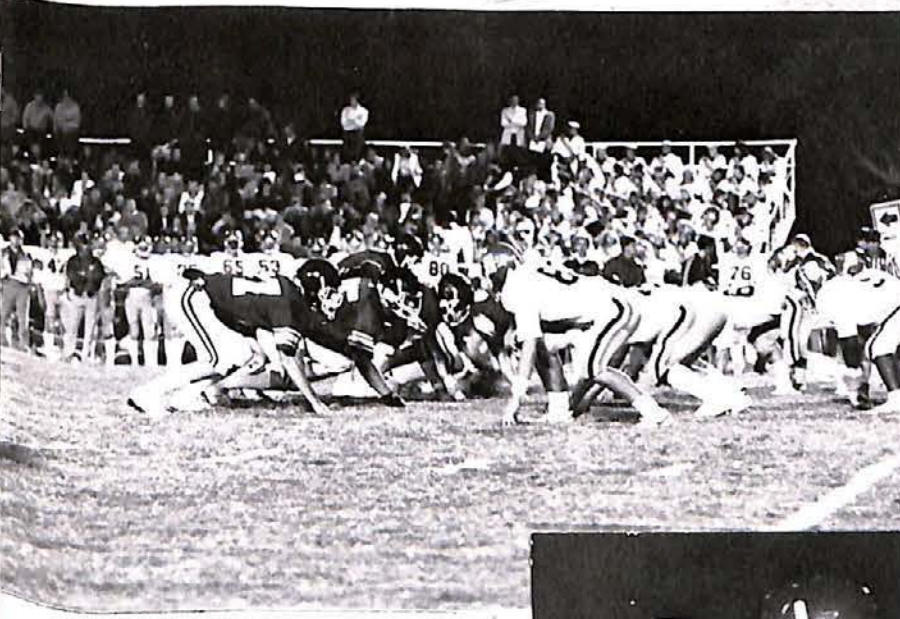

C'mon Walter, give him his McDonald's cup back — you know how he gets when he doesn't have his coffee in the morning.

Two years ago we began as Sophomores in these hallowed halls
 As excitement, fear, and anticipation exuded from our souls.
 We showed those Juniors and Seniors that we had indeed arrived
 When at the OHS Pep Rally, our spirit captured first prize.

As Sophomores, we survived, and as Juniors, we had fun!
 Striving on class competition, we became Number One.
 The year went quickly by and we studied hard to pass
 For our FINAL year was approaching, thankfully at last.

We advanced to the rank of Seniors and the months soon slipped away
 As we counted down the days til the Thirty-first of May
 From these halls of Oxford High School, we must soon depart.
 To fulfill our hopes and dreams, and from this point we must start.

Now there will be no more Charger Pep Rallies
 No more Football Homecoming Parades
 No more Field Days nor Assemblies,
 And no more Auntie Mame.

But from deep within us all, our gratitude we must express
 For the friendships and experiences we've had at OHS.
 The memories and lessons learned by all at Oxford High
 Will always remain cherished by the Class of 85!

Cool it . . . the no-cost way

This time of year you can practically cool your home for free. That's right . . . for free. By taking advantage of natural ventilation, you can avoid using your air-conditioner. Simply turn your air-conditioner off, open your windows, and enjoy the breeze. A fan may be needed on warmer days, but it costs much less to operate than your air-conditioner. Remember, reduce your cooling costs by opening your windows. The breeze is free.

PROPHECIES

HARRY WHITE is hospitalized for a dislocated jaw; all that smiling finally caught up with him. Someone who didn't know him tried to wipe the smile off his face.

GARY "HOT" FUDGE, in some twenty-odd years will still be Dairy Delighting giving old women the triple scoop treatment.

CAMILLE DAVIDSON does so well at her job at Bealle's, that at 23, she owns the entire chain and has Davis Brown as her personal secretary. She's trying to perfect her pucker and is using Sidney as a model.

MICHELLE FOOKS will still be going to Avent's Park to practice her "habits" and think of the others.

By 1990, JILL CAGE has married and divorced Tracey Copley 12 times and refuses to have kids because they'll ruin her weekends.

DANIEL WILLIAMS is still fighting off the girls. As an 80-year old man he still just grins and shakes his head as he ambles down the street in his distinctive amble.

MESS Unlimited, better known as MICHELLE GATOR, EMILY COLEMAN, and STACIE GIPSON will replace Apollonia 6 in Purple Rain II along with Prince.

FRED FRANKLIN finally gets to perform with Eddie Murphy and Richard Pryor.

It was a tragic story for one MIQUEL ANTONIO VALLE. After a stint as a Puerto Rican Soap Opera Star, on his 21st birthday, he was rushed to the Atlanta Cardio-Pulmonary hospital. He could not be revived after holding the same inhaled breath since ninth grade.

CHRIS CHURCHILL finally got her own room in Twin Towers.

JAMES BRASSELL becomes one of America's top black ministers and changes the life of many people in many ways.

MARCIA MARTIN is arrested for cradle-robbing, but she gets off by pleading temporary alcoholism — à la Vera.

CHESTER HOUSTON, known for his killer dive tackle, becomes a defensive back for the San Francisco 49ers. After achieving fame and fortune, guess who he returns to marry!!!

CAMILLE CALHOUN has opened a charm school for Southern Belles. Her students are especially proficient at a Southern drawl and lace parasols. They just aren't too good at managing Southern men or Paradise Point!

KRISTIN GILMORE disappointed the whole world when she came home from Vandy to help Kell pass his Senior year and to return to Paradise Point. She did return to Vandy, Kell in tow, to finish her education. She's now a famous architect whose specialty is designing rest areas for interstate highways.

BRENDA PEGUES and DWIGHT MOSBY become the future classy curl models.

JOHN THOMPSON, still at OHS, takes over Stonewall's job as head of the janitorial department.

JAMES MOAK, DAVID MEYER, and JOHN TETTLETON will become Parchman janitors after 20 years of on-the-job training. They travel MS telling their story and preaching against the evils of senior pranks.

RANDALL ABEL marries his teenage sweetheart and opens a Public Massage Parlor.

FINAL GLIMPSES . . .

1984-1985

EDITORS CLOSING

When we began the 1985 Flashback, we did so knowing we'd break tradition by having a summer annual. With the changed requirements for graduating with special distinction, graduating with honors, and Hall of Fame, it was necessary to change the yearbook's delivery date to include these events. While at first we were worried about this change, we soon became excited because for the first time we would have memories from Spring Fling, field day, the talent show, senior skit, and most importantly, graduation. The later delivery date also gives everybody a chance to be together one last time. This annual would never have been possible without the help of several people. Sarah Beth Wiley provided both a camera and acted as a photographer for the staff on many occasions; the Oxford Eagle provided pictures several times, and Mr. Shelby and Fred Franklin helped with the cover. After spending nine months on this project, we both consider ourselves parents, and this yearbook is our child. We've had our share of morning sickness, but the labor has been worth it. This August, 1985, we present our child to the world; we hope you like it!
