DESCRIPTION

The project manual has been revised to include the bid instructions that were posted with the owner's legal notice, as well as a bid form in response to questions received from prospective bidders. A bid submittal checklist is also included should it prove helpful to prospective bidders. Additionally, substitution procedures and a substitution form have been added to the project manual to allow prospective bidders to bring forward competitive alternatives to the specified bases of design. Finally, the alternates, unit prices, and drawings have been revised to reflect the alternate 1a casement window replacement at room 119 that was identified during the pre-bid meeting that was held on April 18th.
