FIVE SOLON HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS NAMED PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLAR CANDIDATES

Five members of the Solon High School class of 2018 are among 3,000 students nationwide named as candidates for the prestigious honor of U.S. Presidential Scholar. The Solon seniors nominated as potential U.S. Presidential Scholars are: Maggie Brown, Pranav Iyer, Aman Jain, Vivian Jiang and David Ye.

“The Presidential Scholar award is one of the highest honors a high school student can earn,” said Solon High School Principal Erin Short. “We are extremely proud of these five students who have been nominated as Presidential Scholar candidates this year. We wish them good luck as the process continues.”

Students are selected based on a number of factors including accomplishments in academics, art, leadership, and involvement in the school and community at large. In addition, they represent “excellence in education and the promise of greatness in America’s youth,” according to the U.S. Department of Education’s Commission on U. S. Presidential Scholars.

Ultimately, only up to 161 students nationwide will be chosen in May as U.S. Presidential Scholars.
