Woolwich Twp. – Kingsway Regional School District is thrilled to announce that Regan Healey has been appointed as the new Head Girls' Volleyball Coach following the recent Board of Education meeting on April 25th. Superintendent Dr. James J. Lavender unveiled this exciting development on Friday.

With an illustrious playing and coaching career spanning over a decade, Coach Healey is a shining example of unwavering dedication and commitment to the sport. Her recent roles as the Girls' Assistant Varsity Coach and the Girl's Head Coach at Eastern Volleyball Academy since 2022 underscore her expertise and passion for volleyball, making her an ideal fit for the position of Head Girls' Volleyball Coach.

Superintendent James Lavender expressed his excitement about Coach Healey's appointment, stating, "We are thrilled to welcome Coach Healey to our esteemed athletic program in her new role as Head Coach. With her wealth of experience in volleyball and her unwavering commitment to our student-athletes, we are confident that she will not only enrich our team culture but also foster a positive impact throughout our school community. Her appointment marks the beginning of an exciting new chapter for our volleyball program, promising a brighter future for our students and stakeholders."

Coach Healey, a proud 2017 graduate of Kingsway Regional High School, returns to her alma mater with a wealth of experience and a deep understanding of the school's values. Her journey as both a player and an assistant coach began here, and her return is filled with immense pride and anticipation. She earned accolades on the volleyball court, including being named Captain and earning All-Conference honors. She continued her playing career at Wesley College, where she studied education, was named Team Captain and MVP, and received All-Conference recognition.

As Coach Healey steps into the head coach role, she brings a strong commitment to upholding Kingsway's tradition of excellence. Her dedication to the sport and understanding of the school's values make her the perfect fit for this role.

"I am committed to fostering a sense of community and upholding Kingsway's tradition of excellence," said Coach Healey. "I am honored to work with our dedicated team of female athletes who are relentless in their pursuit of success, and I know that together, we will make the Kingsway community proud."

June Cioffi, Kingsway's Athletic Director, extended a warm and enthusiastic welcome to Coach Healey, expressing her utmost confidence in Coach Healey's ability to invigorate the volleyball program with passion and expertise. "Given her deep ties within the community and genuine care for our students," said Cioffi, "Coach Healey is an invaluable addition to our team, and we are confident in her leadership."

Cioffi added, "Our Girls Volleyball team has grown tremendously in numbers, and the team has been dedicated in the off-season working on their skill development and fundamentals. We are excited to have added a middle school team last year, and our vision and goals are to grow the program into a Group IV playoff contender."

Anticipating the start of the season, Coach Healey plans to meet with the team on May 3rd as Kingsway's Girls Volleyball Team aims to continue its tradition of excellence.
