A new state law now makes identification cards available to New York State residents who have a medically diagnosed developmental disability. These cards are meant to be presented to law enforcement, firefighters and emergency medical services personnel to aid in the communication process.

I/DD ID Cards can be requested on the OPWDD website at www.opwdd.ny.gov/iddidcards or by filling out the form below and mailing it to:

Communications Office
Office for People With Developmental Disabilities
44 Holland Avenue
Albany, NY 12229
