

PARENT CONFERENCES

Parent-teacher conferences are a means for improving the quality of education each child receives. Conferences provide an opportunity for a mutual exchange of information and ideas for the welfare of the child. The goal will be a positive and supportive exchange of information. Parent-teacher conferences will be offered for all children in grades K-12.

Parents may also arrange conferences with their child's teacher(s) whenever they find it advisable.

Adopted: January 24, 1994

Revised: January 22, 2024