

LIAISON WITH SCHOOL COMMITTEE ASSOCIATIONS

Through maintaining a membership in the Rhode Island Association of School Committees, the School Committee will endeavor to keep abreast of developments in school law and all related matters affecting the public schools. This membership also provides indirect membership in the National School Boards Association.

It is the policy of the School Committee to take advantage of the benefits offered by these associations for the good of the school system.

ADOPTED: January 6, 1992

REVIEWED: October 3, 2022