Principal's Message

With another month having come and gone, we are already midway through the third quarter. It seems like just yesterday, we were on Christmas break. Students and teachers are continuing to work hard each day to have the best year they can.

I hope everyone has been enjoying reading Ada Lace on the Case with your child(ren) at home each night as part of our One School One Book program. Also, as we head into March, I wanted to call your attention to some events happening at Oakview this month. The Green Eggs and Ham breakfast is scheduled for March 6th and 7th. We will also be celebrating Read Across America Week with themed days from March 4th-7th. Please reference the flyer in this month's newsletter for the different themes throughout the week.

In addition, don't forget to head out and see the high school's musical production of Footloose. Shows will take place on March 7th, 8th, and 9th.

Thank you,

Josh Stonebraker
Oakview Principal

Lakeview Transitioning to School Cafe'

Also, as I'm sure you've heard, Lakeview School District has transitioned to School Cafe' to help you manage your child's lunch account. Please scan the QR code to the right to create a new account. You will need your child's student ID number, which was sent home on a notecard earlier this week.
