Title

Recognition of Creekview High School Students Cade Smith and Nate Hancock -- Elected to Georgia Technology Student Association Board

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of Creekview High School Students Cade Smith and Nate Hancock -- Elected to Georgia Technology Student Association Board

Summary Explanation and Background

The Georgia Technology Student Association recently hosted an annual State Leadership Conference in Athens. The annual statewide event offers middle and high school students the opportunity to compete in a variety of contests focused on technology related career skills.

During the event, two Creekview High School students won election to statewide office with the organization. Junior Cade Smith, facing two opponents, was elected as the new state president, and sophomore Nate Hancock competed against 16 students to earn the position of Sergeant at Arms. Terri Hancock is their teacher and TSA sponsor.
