Glorious Things Of Thee Are Spoken

Glorious things of thee are spoken Zion city of our God.
He whose word cannot be broken formed thee for his own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded what can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded, thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See the streams of living waters, springing from eternal love, well supply thy sons and daughters and all fear of want remove. Who can faint, when such a river ever will their thirst assuage?
Grace which like the Lord, the giver, never fails from age to age.

Round each habitation hovering, see the cloud and fire appear for a glory and a covering, showing that the Lord is near.
Thus, deriving from their banner, light by night, and shade by day, safe they feed up on the manna which he gives them when they pray.

Blest inhabitants of Zion, washed in the Redeemers blood!
Jesus whom their souls rely on, makes them
kings and priests to God.
Tis his love his people raises over self to reign as kings: and as priest, his solemn praises each for a thank offering brings.

INTRODUCTORY RITE

WELCOME

Chair of the Board of Trustees

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the angels and saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen

FIRST READING

Isaiah 61: 1-4

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; He has sent me to bring good news to the afflicted, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, release to the prisoners, To announce a year of favor from the Lord and a day of vindication by our God; To comfort all who mourn; to place on those who mourn in Zion a diadem instead of ashes, to give them oil of gladness instead of mourning, a glorious mantle instead of a faint spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 104 vs 25-32

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all: the earth is full of your creatures. Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.

You open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

You hide your face, and they are terrified, you take away their breath and they die and return to their dust.

There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it. All of them look to you, to give them their food in due season. You give it to them; they gather it;

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created, and so you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever, and may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

SECOND READING

1 Peter 3:15-18

Beloved: Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence, keeping your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who defame your good conduct in Christ may themselves be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be the will of God than for doing evil.

For Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Celtic Alleluia

*Alleluia, Alleluia
Alleluia, Alleluia!*

Come, Holy Spirit. Fill the hearts of your faithful, and enlighten them with the fire of your love.

*Alleluia, Alleluia!
Alleluia, Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

John 14: 15-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Response: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

Spirit of God

Spirit of God decent upon my heart. Wean it from earth, though all its pulses move; Stoop to my weakness, mighty as thou art, and make me love thee as I ought to love.

Teach me to feel that Thou art always nigh; Teach me the struggles of the soul to bear; To check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh; Teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.

I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies; no sudden rending of the veil of clay; no angel visitant, no open'ing skies; But take the dimness of my soul away.

Teach me to love Thee as Thine angels love, one holy passion filling all my frame; The baptism of the heaven' descended dove, my heart an altar, and they love the flame.

Hast thou not bid us love Thee, God and King? All, all thine own, soul, heart and strength and mind; I see thy cross, there teach my heart to cling; O let me seek thee, and O let me find.

The Lord Is My Light

Refrain: The Lord is my light, my joy and my song; by day and by night he leads me a long; The Lord is my light, my joy and my song; by day and by night he leads me a long.

The Lord is my light; then why should I fear?
By day and by night his presence is near;
He is my salvation from sorrow and sin, this blessed persuasion the Spirit brings in.
Refrain

The Lord is my light, the lord is my strength,
I know in his might I'll conquer at length;
My weakness in mercy he covers with power,
and walking by faith, he upholds me each hour.
Refrain

The Lord is my light; though clouds may arise, Faith stronger than night his presence is near;
He is my salvation from sorrow and sin;
This blessed persuasion the Spirit brings in.
Refrain

The Lord is my light, my all and in all;
There is in his sight no darkness at all;
He is my redeemer, my Savior and King; with saints and with angels his praises I sing.
Refrain

It Is Well With My Soul

Refrain: It is well with my soul, it is well with my soul.

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll- what ever my lot, thou hast thought me to say, it is well, it is well with my soul.

Refrain

And, Lord, hast the day when my faith shall be sight, the clouds be rolled back as a scroll: The trump shall re-sound and the Lord shall descent, even so it is well with my soul.

Refrain

My sin- O the joy of this glorious thought, my sin, not in part but the whole, is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more, Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord, O my soul.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Guide Me O Great Jehovah

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah, pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak but thou art mighty;
hold me with thy powerful hand;
bread of heaven, bread of heaven, feed me now and ever more, feed me now and ever more.

When I tread the verge of Jordan, bid my anxious fears subside;
death of death, and hell's destruction, land me
safe on Canaan's side;
songs of praises, songs of praises, I will ever give to thee, I will ever give to thee.

Open now the crystal fountain, whence the healing stream doth flow; let the fire and cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through; strong deliverer, strong deliverer, be thou still my strength and shield, be thou still my strength and shield.

ACADEMIC DRESS

American academic costume originated in medieval European universities where clerical-like gowns were everyday dress, providing for their wearers not only distinctions, but warmth during long hours of study in poorly heated buildings. On American campuses today, academic attire is seen only at such formal affairs as commencements, convocations, dedications, and other ceremonies.

It is possible to identify which degree the wearer holds, the university that awarded it, and the course of study that it represents. The distinguishing features are three — the cut of the gown, the length and colors of the hood, and the color of the tassel on the cap.

The bachelor's and master's gowns are generally made of plain black cotton without trimming, while the gown for the doctorate is made of rayon or silk and is faced down the front with black or colored velvet and has three bars of the same material across bell-shaped sleeves. Members of the governing body of a college, university, or other academic institution are entitled to wear doctoral gowns, although hoods represent the actual degree held by the wearer. The chief faculty marshal may wear a specially designed costume approved by the institution. Military uniforms and religious habits are also appropriate apparel at academic convocations. Chief officers of many universities wear colored gowns, and several institutions have authorized optional doctoral gowns which embody the institution.

The hood is the most distinctive feature of academic attire in the United States. Originally used as a cowl, as a shoulder cape, and as a container in which to collect alms, it is now worn at the back, suspended from the shoulders. The hoods can be distinguished by length and color. The bachelor's hood measures three feet, the master's three and one-half, and the doctor's four. The color of the velvet edging which is two inches wide for the bachelor's hood, three inches wide for the master's, and five inches wide for the doctor's, indicates the subject area of the degree. The lining of the hood symbolizes the official colors of the institution which awarded the degree and the hood is worn in such a way that a large part of the lining is visible.

The black mortarboard cap with tassel may be worn with each type of gown. Those holding a doctorate wear gold tassels, while holders of bachelor's and master's degrees generally have black tassels. With the exception of the graduates who wear the tassel over the right temple, all others wear the tassel over the left temple. Some institutions have the graduating class move their tassels to the left during the commencement ceremony to officially symbolize the conferring of a degree.

The following colors are associated with each faculty: Arts, Letters, and Humanities — white; Business Administration — drab; Economics — copper; Education — light blue; Engineering — orange; Fine Arts — brown; Journalism — crimson; Law — purple; Library — lemon; Medicine — green; Music — pink; Philosophy — dark blue; Physical Education — sage green; Science — golden yellow; Social Science — cream; and Theology — scarlet.
