

Southern California Professional Development Federation and DREAMS+DUCATS invites you to

Workforce Learning Redefined

Come learn from a cutting edge San Diego grassroots organization DREAM+DUCATS who are doing impactful work in social entrepreneurship and shifting the education paradigm.

We'll explore new possibilities for CTE and workforce development that is student and community-driven, hear from a young person involved in this work, and share ideas for taking these possibilities into our schools and communities. Also, we'll have the chance to tour MiraCosta College's Community Education & Workforce Development department at the Technology Career Institute.
