Saint Mary’s Hall Textbook Buyback Policies

As with any bookstore, there are certain criteria that the textbook(s)/book(s) must meet in order to be eligible. If the textbook(s)/book(s) submitted meet the criteria listed below, a dollar amount will be assigned to each particular textbook(s)/book(s). The dollar amount will be applied to your student’s Book Bill. The Spirit Store will not issue cash or checks for any used textbook(s)/book(s). Saint Mary’s Hall reserves the right to establish the prices for all textbook(s)/book(s) and also reserves the right to refuse to buy back textbook(s)/book(s) for any reason, at any time.

Criteria

- ALL textbook(s)/book(s) must be purchased from the Saint Mary’s Hall Spirit Store. Any textbook(s)/book(s) purchased through another store are not eligible to be apart of the buyback program.
- The textbook(s)/book(s) must be the edition adopted by a Saint Mary’s Hall faculty instructor for the following school year.

Textbook Buy Back Requirements

- The covers must not be bent or have torn corners.
- The bindings cannot be broken or loose from the back.
- No more than 1-2 highlight colors can be used within the pages.
- Minimal underlining.
- No written notes in the margins or answers completed to any questions/quizzes can appear on the pages.
- No missing or ripped pages.
- No drawing or doodling anywhere on the pages or cover.
- No personal notes written anywhere in the book.
- No stains or water damage.
- No writing on the page edges of the book.

The following factors will influence whether or not Saint Mary’s Hall will buy back a textbook/book

- The condition of the book.
- The Spirit Store is overstocked for a specific title.
- The instructor will not use the textbook/book or is undecided for the next school year.
- A new edition has been published and the instructor requires the newest edition.
- The instructor specifies that the book must be in NEW condition for each school year.
- The textbook/book came with a CD, online access code, or software that is not accompanied with the book, is no longer available or has been used.
