2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA’s data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by “TFS” (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	CCRPI School Climate score as related to responses on the Georgia Student Health Survey.

What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people’s knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question “What do people think they know, believe, or can do?”)	CCRPI School Climate/Student Health Survey Data: Data used from previous sources due to no new CCRPI Data 2017 School Climate indicates a 75.066 as rated by students on the Georgia Student Health Survey and a 2018 rating of 76.39. Disaggregation of the 2017 data shows that areas rated always by 3rd, 4th and 5th graders respectively included "My school wants me to do well", "My school has clear rules to follow", and "There is an adult in my school who will help if I need it". Rated low on always by 3rd, 4th and 5th graders respectively were "I feel like I do well in school", "Good behavior is noticed at my school", "Students in my class behave so teachers can teach", and "Students treat each other well". A closer look at the data shows that responses from female students vs male students on the 2017 Student Health Survey were disproportionate in the following areas: "Students in my class behave so teachers can teach" F=4.37 M=8.11; "Teachers treat me with respect" F=72.13 M=57.84; "I feel safe at school" F=68.85 M=54.60; and "I like school" F=32.79 M=22.16. Disaggregation of the 2018 data shows that 3rd, 4th and 5th graders are more likely to say they "sometimes" or "often" say they like school as opposed to "always". When looking at female to male comparisons in regards to this questions, 32.65% of female students said "always" while only 17.05% of males responded "always". Student perceptions of whether they do well in school also show that both female and male students in grades 3rd, 4th and 5th are more likely to say "sometimes" or "often" as opposed to "always". Responses to questions regarding whether good behavior is noticed and whether students behave in class so that teachers can teach were in line with responses from the 2017 survey and showed no significant differences between males and females. Disaggregation of the 2019 data shows a climate score of 95.6. The student score was 79.52.

What process data did you use? What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question “What did you do for whom?”)	Collaborative Planning Collaborative Teams meet once monthly with administrators and the expectation is that they will meet weekly within their individual groups. This is an area that we have targeted for growth for 20-21. While some teams do a good job, there is still some misunderstandings of what types of tasks should be completed during collaborative planning. We will focus more this year on specific agenda items and how each grade levels' standards build upon the next. Data Meetings Data Meetings are held once monthly with administrators and the expectation is that they will meet weekly within their individual groups. If this data holds true, it is imperative that we continue to focus on ELA and Math while insuring that Science and Social Studies are given equal attention. During collaborative planning we will make a concentrated effort to monitor how grades K-4 are assessing mastery and insuring the foundation is laid for 5th grade in both science and social studies.
