

Hope

I believe there is good in the world.

Books Available from the Library

Most People by Michael Leannah

The world can feel like a scary place, but this book is a gentle reminder that even when bad things happen and even though they must be careful, most people are good, kind, and loving.

After the Fall by Dan Santat

The story of what happened to Humpty Dumpty after the fall and how he got back up on the wall.

I Walk with Vanessa by Kerascoet

This wordless book tells the story of a girl who is made fun on the way home from school. A bystander sees and is upset by what she saw, but how can she help?

The Carrot Seed by Ruth Krauss

A little boy plants a seed and hopes that it will grow.

Owl Moon by Jane Yolen

A child and father go to the woods in the night in hope of seeing an owl.

Bantam of the Opera by Mary Jane Auch

A rooster with the soul of a musician wants nothing more than to sing for all to hear. He becomes the mascot for an opera company, but can he hope to ever take the stage?

Sylvester and the Magic Pebble by William Steig

Sylvester the donkey accidentally changes himself into a rock. He is stuck that way and hopes that someone will come along and help him turn back into a donkey.
