

California Homeless Education Technical Assistance Center (HETAC)

The California HETAC is funded by the California Department of Education to provide support and technical assistance to county offices of education, local educational agencies, and other interested stakeholders to ensure educational access and success for children and youth experiencing homelessness. The HETAC is operated jointly by the Contra Costa, Los Angeles, and San Diego County Offices of Education.

The HETAC offers:

- A comprehensive website, including federal and state legislation and guidance, resources by topic, homeless education data literacy tools, and a get help feature www.hetac.org
- Informational and implementation resources, including tip sheets, toolkits, and recorded webinars and training modules www.hetac.org/hetac-resources
- Live and on-demand training and events, including a statewide conference www.hetac.org/events
- Technical assistance and professional development customized by region, county office of education, local educational agency, or other stakeholder
