Charleston, SC – Charleston County School District's Board of Trustees approved two options for the 2023-2024 Academic Calendar for public review and feedback this week.

Students, staff, district employees, parents, and community members are now welcome to participate in a survey, which opened today, and will remain open until 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 15, 2023. The results from the survey will be provided to the Board of Trustees at their meeting Monday, March 27, 2023, and the finalized calendar will be posted on the district website after the Board of Trustees makes their final decision.

The survey, the options, and the comparisons for the academic calendar are available at ccsdschools.com/academiccalendar.

For additional information, contact the Office of Communications at (843) 937-6303.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is a nationally accredited school district committed to providing equitable and quality educational opportunities for all of its students. CCSD is the second-largest school system in South Carolina and represents a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves approximately 49,000 students in 88 schools and specialized programs.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), Montessori, and charter schools. Options include programs in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM); music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military.
