Chief of Staff

CHARLESTON S.C. – Charleston County School District appreciates the efforts of government officials, employees, volunteers, contractors, law enforcement and utility workers who helped secure our schools, run hurricane shelters and assist with clean-up efforts. We hope to reopen all schools on their regular schedule Monday, September 9, 2019.

If any school site must remain closed Monday, we will make that announcement as soon as possible.

For more information contact the Office of Strategy and Communications at (843) 937-6303.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD), a nationally-accredited school district, is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 87 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
