Our innovative Virtual High School Program allows students to take accredited online courses in non-traditional subjects like Screenwriting, AP Macroeconomics, Animal Behavior and Zoology, Peacemaking, Oceanography and over 200 additional courses.

The Community

Union Catholic is a regional, coeducational Catholic high school located in the suburban setting of Scotch Plains, NJ. We serve a diverse population of 650 students representing 12 counties, 84 towns, and drawing from over 154 sending schools. We also welcome international students through a competitive and supportive International Student Program. Students are accepted on the basis of the Archdiocesan Cooperative Exam, placement exams, school records and interviews. In a community with a population that exceeds 24,000, Scotch Plains is family-oriented, featuring many parks for recreation, golf courses, various athletic fields, and swimming facilities, all within two miles of the school. There is also a nearby train station which offers service to New York City.
