Mental Health Awareness Month:

Did you know that 1 in 5 Americans will experience a diagnosable mental health condition this year? By joining the "Be Seen in Green" challenge tomorrow, Thursday, May 16th, you're not just wearing a color, you're shining a light of hope and support on mental health for millions. As the official color for mental health awareness, green represents renewal, hope, and vitality. Wearing green, symbolizes unwavering support for mental health. Participating in this challenge sends a powerful message: Mental health is important, and by joining together, we are advocating for and supporting mental health. Please wear your GREEN tomorrow!!!!
