F. Introduction of New Staff

Kelly Bohl, Deputy Superintendent of Administrative Services, introduced and provided a brief introduction for the following new staff members. The Board welcomed all new hires to Wayne RESA.

- Dr. Angela Jack – Educational Improvement Consultant
- Arlo McMillian – Administrative Assistant
- Malik Harvey - Administrative Assistant – Reception/Event Services
- Marilyn Baxter - Administrative Assistant – SEEIS

G. President’s Remark and Board Comments

Member Funderburg shared highlights from the National School Board Association (NSBA) Annual Conference attended by Wayne RESA Board members April 6 – 8, 2024. Highlights included the keynote by Ruby Bridges, civil rights icon, activist, author, and speaker who, at the age of six, was the first Black student to integrate an all-White elementary school alone in Louisiana. Ms. Bridges spoke to Breaking Barriers: A Fireside Chat on Equity, Education, and Empathy.

Member Funderburg also spoke about keynote speaker, Richard Montanez, former Vice President, Multicultural Sales & Community Activation, PepsiCo North America; author and philanthropist, who began his career as a janitor at Frito-Lay (a PepsiCo division) in 1976, going on to create the Flamin' Hot product line, which evolved into both a billion-dollar enterprise and a cultural phenomenon.

Member Funderburg added that Wayne RESA board members attended workshops presented by Wayne County Superintendents. River Rouge Superintendent, Dr. Derrick Coleman presented with Shakesha Alexander, River Rouge Director of Animal-Assisted Interventions on "Trauma-Informed Framework featuring Animal-Assisted Interventions" which shared how the program is training animal support dogs in the district. Harper Woods Superintendent, Steven McGhee and Michael Carrauthers, Harper Woods Chief Academic Officer presented on "You Can't Open Tomorrow's Doors With Yesterday's Keys", K-12 Instruction Re-Imagined For Equity which included a presentation on how the district is revving up their construction trades program utilizing shipping containers. Member Funderburg shared how nice it was to have Wayne County Schools represented at a national conference.

Member Beri shared highlights from NSBA Conference keynote speaker, Dr. Timothy Shriver, Chairman of Special Olympics, Co-founder and CEO of UNITE, Co-Creator of the Dignity Index, who spoke about the country being divided, sharing skills for dignified disagreements. Member Beri also shared his appreciation for the informative general sessions that were offered during the conference and the opportunity to speak with school board members from across the country.

Member Blackmon added that Dr. Shriver's presentation also assisted board members with discussion about assessing what is important and what is not important. Member Blackmon also shared that she enjoyed the presentations by Harper Woods and River Rouge Superintendents and members of their team and is looking forward to hearing more about their programs.

Member Blackmon felt the conference was very well planned and spoke about the benefits of interacting and learning from colleagues throughout the country, and spending time with fellow Wayne RESA board members.

Member Petrie shared his experiences from the NSBA Conference. He spoke about keynote speaker, Ruby Bridges and how for 35 years, no one knew her name, but that she initiated the desegregation of public education and how she handled it all with dignity and composure.

Member Petrie also acknowledged Don Hubler, Macomb ISD Board Member who was named NSBA President during the conference.

H. Communications

The Board acknowledged a communication received from the Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB) on April 11, 2024 announcing that the board decided to fill, by appointment, a board vacancy representing Region 8 which was created by the resignation of Dr. Darlene Pomponio, Southgate Community Schools. A link to MASB's Civility in the Appointment Process was provided and candidate applications and materials are due by noon on May 17, 2024.

I. Special Presentations

1. April is Autism Acceptance Month

911READY Bags – Lisa Vilella, Executive Director, Mimi's Mission/President, 911Ready, Inc and Lt. Andrew Starzec, 911READY System Consultant/Deputy Chief of Brownstown Police Department provided a demonstration of the contents of the 911 Ready bags being used by first responders from most of the downriver police departments, Monroe, Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Woods police departments and Detroit Police and Fire (through a partnership with the Detroit Pistons) to assist with calls involving citizens with autism and those with mental health concerns. The bag's contents included a weighted blanket, breakaway necklaces, noodles for stress relief and noise canceling/reducing headphones.

- 2. Preliminary Budget Presentations – Drew McMechan, Assistant Superintendent of Financial Services presented Wayne RESA's 2024-25 preliminary budgets which included the budget timeline and assumptions, and overviews of the General Fund, Cooperative Fund, Enhancement Millage, and the Act 18 Fund.

J. Superintendent's Report

Executive Director of Legislative Affairs Mike Latvis

Mr. Latvis shared the following legislative updates:

- The Democrats won general elections for State Representatives in Westland and Warren on April 16, 2024. The House Democrats have the majority back (56/54).
- Of the large school safety package of bills, a more focused package was presented with four of the five bills being pushed through to the House for vote.
- The House Education Committee is working on the school safety and dyslexia bills, policy regarding charter transparency and the FAFSA requirement.
- The Senate voted on April 16 to pass the bill which requires kindergarten and includes a waiver for families who believe their student is not ready.
- Foundation allowance recommendations have been received from the Governor's office ($9849) and the Senate ($9910). The House budget is expected the week of April 22.
- Section 56 language has been changed back, removing the restrictive language the impacts Wayne RESA.
- $670 million has been freed up for fully funding healthcare benefits under MPSEER. The Governor has proposed to continue with the current rate with the state reissuing the funds in categorical, but an ask has been submitted to lower the rate that districts pay back by 7% which could equate to $400-$600 per student on an ongoing basis.

Deputy Superintendent of Administrative Services, Kelly Bohl

Ms. Bohl shared the following update:

- French and Associates submitted plans for Beacon/Gilead as a K-12 site, but the state has identified the site as change of use. As a result, an amended recommendation for board approval has been submitted with the April Board Recommendations for a complete roof replacement for the Beacon/Gilead building.

Assistant Superintendent of Financial Services, Drew McMechan

Mr. McMechan provided an explanation for Board Recommendation 258-23-44, submitted in the April packet, based on a question from a board member. The contract with Follett Software Company for Destiny Library Software building licenses for Wayne County schools is for 37 districts, including some districts outside of Wayne County.

Superintendent Dr. Daveda Colbert

Dr. Daveda Colbert shared:

- Throughout April RESA honors Autism Acceptance to celebrate all learners and raise the praise and awareness for all students and ensure all learners are able to achieve the highest quality of life and success.
- RESA also honors the Week of the Young Child, April 6 -12, 2024, as we continue to celebrate early learning, young children and their development, and their teachers, and families. A picture of the Wayne RESA Early Childhood Team was posted to social media thanking them for their dedication to improving the education and outcomes of the whole child.
- RESA celebrates Arab American Heritage Month, which is an opportunity to amplify the priorities and celebrations among the Arab American community. Arabic American History resources were shared with constituents and staff including information about visiting the Arab American National Museum.
- Lisa Ogiemwonyi, Wayne RESA Science Consultant, provided solar eclipse glasses and strategies for educators to Wayne County Schools to ensure students were engaged, acting as scientists, during the solar eclipse on April 8, 2024.
  - Dr. Colbert and Beth Gonzalez, Deputy Superintendent of Educational Services, delivered glasses provided by Lisa Ogiemwonyi to The Dearborn Academy on March 20 when they read to elementary students during the academy’s Mystery Reader event. Principal Melissa Lathrup expressed her appreciation.
- Wayne County Districts represented on the national stage with phenomenal presentations during the National School Board Association (NSBA) Annual Conference held April 6-8, 2024 in New Orleans, Louisiana. River Rouge presented “Trauma-Informed Framework Featuring Animal-Assisted Interventions” and Harper Woods presented “You Can’t Open Tomorrow’s Doors with Yesterday’s Keys: K-12 Instruction Re-Imagined for Equity. Kudos to River Rouge and Harper Woods Superintendents, Dr. Derrick Colmen and Steven McGhee, along with their teams, staff and Boards of Education.
- Congratulations to Don Hubler, Macomb ISD Board Member, for becoming the NSBA 2024-25 President. Mr. Hubler was thankful for the support of Michigan school board members and shared his appreciation for the Wayne RESA Board of Education’s continued support. Don Hubler’s first speech as president was inspiring as he talked about the importance of showing up and the future of NSBA.
  - Macomb ISD Superintendent Mike DeVault also shared his appreciation for the support of the Wayne RESA Board.
- RESA received confirmation that the Michigan Department of Treasury made the final payment to retire the remaining debt for Inkster Schools on Monday, April 1, 2024! This is exciting for the Inkster residents and exciting for RESA. This monumental final payment was made possible through the hard work and advocacy of many people over the past decade or more. Efforts began with Chris Wigent, former RESA Superintendent during the dissolution of the district, and continued with former RESA Superintendent, Dr. Randy Liepa, and their teams. Former RESA employees, Steve Ezikian, Tamara Dust, and Kathy Merry were instrumental with the initial work to support this effort and Drew McMechan, Assistant Superintendent of Financial Services, Kelly Bohl, Deputy Superintendent of Administrative Services and Mike Latvis, Senior Executive Director of Legislative Affairs carried the efforts over the finish line. Special thanks to Attorney

Amanda Van Dusen, Miller Canfield, who assisted RESA with this process from the beginning to end.

- The RESA team hosted the National MISTAR Q Users Experience Conference on April 9–11, 2024, in Novi, Michigan. Kudos to Jenni Munroe and Brandon Wilkins, who both serve on the advisory board, for their coordination and welcoming presence as participants arrived at the conference. Dr. Colbert delivered the keynote to MISTAR Q users nationwide, including those from Wayne, Oakland, and Livingston Counties, as well as the Sault Area Public Schools. Special thanks to Dana Chicklas and Chris Slat in coordination with Brandon Wilkins and Kurt Rheume on the outstanding MISTAR video that was produced and now available on the RESA website and social media. Thanks to the Wayne RESA and Oakland Schools Information Technology Teams for their contributions to the development and training of the software and for the support given to all users and for hosting an amazing conference in Michigan.
  - Special thanks to Andrell Williams for his technology support and assistance to Dr. Colbert to ensure she was prepared as she delivered the keynote.
- Beth Gonzalez, Krista McKinney-King and Sandra Dukhie presented during the MASA Women in Leadership Conference in Traverse City. Their session was standing room only as they provided valuable data and a phenomenal presentation on Leadership.
- The End-of-Year convening of the Wayne County Women in Leadership was held on April 15 at Wayne RESA. The affinity group has been beneficial as evident by the feedback received.
- Dr. Colbert will share a few words during the Excellence in Transportation Gala being held Saturday, April 20. This is an annual celebration and recognition of bus drivers, bus aides, specialists and mechanics presented by Wayne RESA and hosted by Student Transportation.
- RESA looks forward to celebrating all of our administrative assistants and support professionals during Administrative Professionals Week, April 22 – 26. The contributions, dedication, and hard work of each of our administrative staff keep the organization moving in the right direction.
- April 18 is the Wayne County Parent Advisory Committee’s Special Recognition event where educators who support our special population students are celebrated. Dr. Colbert will open the meeting, which has been coordinated by the Committee Chair, Kara Clarke, and Dr. Jennifer Taiariol, Assistant Superintendent of Special Education and Early Interventions Services will deliver closing remarks.
- An op-ed by Terri Gamlin, a longtime Career and Technical Education director and principal, was published by the Detroit News. Ms. Gamlin shared information about Harper Woods School District’s career-technical program and their College & Career Institute Center (CCI). The article spoke about how funding provided by the Wayne County Regional Enhancement millage helps support the programs provided by CCI. More powerful stories from Wayne County Schools will be shared in upcoming months.
- Save-the-Dates were shared with the RESA Board for upcoming Wayne County program visits and RESA Staff celebrations and outings. As we transition through the fourth quarter, we will do so by recognizing and celebrating RESA staff and the work that we do!
  - Thanks were extended to the Wayne RESA Board of Education for their unwavering commitment to advocacy for public education and increased student outcomes in Wayne County.
