Summer Reading Challenge!

Students, you have made great gains in your reading ability this school year! You must keep reading over the summer to keep your skills sharp, so you do not lose any of your gains. And you can have fun doing it! During the summer, complete the activity described in each box and record the date, title/author, and your favorite part of the day's reading (use full sentences). Older students can count parts of chapter books for a day's reading as long as they read at least 20 minutes.
