2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

	responded that clean and sanitary facilities were important (96%), as well as updated instructional equipment (93%), and additional staff for students needing extra assistance (91%). Parents felt that summer learning opportunities was not important for success in school as the other initiatives previously mentioned (32%).
	An opportunity for growth in our parental relationships was found in the parent feedback survey as well. Parents were asked what they would like to see improved at YES. Parents reported that they would like to see more communication through gradebooks, conferences and emails. In addition parents would like to see more face to face instruction and less online school work. YES will continue to work to improve communication with parents and provide more face to face instruction in their student's education.
	According to the PBIS Survey, teachers feel that students are recognized for making good choices and problem behaviors are systematically addressed. The survey did reveal concern with discipline consequences for student behaviors that are repetitive and pervasive throughout the school day.

What process data did you use? (examples:	PBIS Process - SWIS Data
