ORANGEBURG COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT ANNOUNCES NEW LEADERSHIP APPOINTMENTS FOR 2024-2025 SCHOOL YEAR

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) is proud to announce significant leadership appointments and role transitions within the District for the 2024-2025 school year, effective July 1, 2024. These changes highlight OCSD's commitment to advancing educational leadership and aligning talents with the needs of our schools.

- Dr. Latoya Glenn, currently the Interim Principal at Mellichamp Elementary, will be officially appointed as the Principal. Prior to her interim role, she served as an Assistant Principal at Marshall Elementary.
- Georgetta Kennedy, currently an Assistant Principal at Dover Elementary School, will assume the role of Principal at Brookdale Elementary School.
- Denise Simpson, currently an Assistant Principal at Whittaker Elementary, is being named as the new Principal of Whittaker Elementary School.
- Dr. Sharon Foreman, presently a guidance counselor at Edisto Primary, will transition to the role of Assistant Principal at Whittaker Elementary.
- Dr. Mary Williams, currently serving as a Reading Coach at Brookdale Elementary, will now take on responsibilities as the Assistant Principal at Dover.
- Dr. Brian Young, a guidance counselor at Edisto Elementary, has been appointed as the new Assistant Principal at Brookdale Elementary.

"These appointments reflect our approach to nurturing leadership within our schools. Each of these individuals has demonstrated a profound commitment to education and has shown exceptional capability in their current roles. We are confident that their new positions will enable them to make even more significant contributions to the success of our students and the broader school community," said Dr. Shawn D. Foster, Superintendent of OCSD.

These transitions are part of OCSD's strategic effort to place skilled educational leaders in positions where they can have the greatest impact. The District continues to focus on strengthening its leadership teams to ensure that all students have access to high-quality educational experiences.
