PATRICIA HAMPTON APPOINTED AS PRINCIPAL OF EDISTO ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District is proud to announce the appointment of Patricia Hampton as the new Principal of Edisto Elementary School, effective July 1, 2024.

Ms. Hampton brings a wealth of experience and a strong educational background to her new role. She has been serving as the Assistant Principal of Edisto Elementary School since July 2019, where she has played a pivotal role in enhancing student success and maintaining school safety. Her responsibilities have included conferencing with parents and guardians, acting as Grade Book Administrator, Data Coach, and Benchmark Coordinator, as well as developing and maintaining safety procedures that meet the diverse needs of students.

Hampton holds an Educational Specialist Degree in Educational Administration, a Master of Education in Counselor Education, and a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education with a Minor in Special Education, all from South Carolina State University. Her expertise in effective communication, problem-solving, and classroom observations has been instrumental in improving teaching practices and student learning outcomes.

"Ms. Hampton's dedication to a positive and effective learning environment, along with her proven leadership skills, make her an excellent choice for Principal of Edisto Elementary School. We are confident that her vision and commitment will continue to drive the school's success," said Dr. Shawn D. Foster, Superintendent of Orangeburg County School District.
