MALEK MCDUFFIE APPOINTED AS ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL OF WILLIAM J. CLARK MIDDLE SCHOOL

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District is excited to announce the appointment of Malek McDuffie as the new Assistant Principal of William J. Clark Middle School, effective July 1, 2024.

Mr. McDuffie brings experience and dedication to his new role. He has been serving as a Graduation Coach at Lower Richland High School in Richland County School District One since 2023, where he has been instrumental in monitoring 12th-grade students, supervising the graduation rate team, and overseeing special programs. Additionally, McDuffie has been an Intern-Assistant Administrator since 2022, where he has coordinated various programs and supported daily operations, student discipline, and professional development.

Mr. McDuffie's extensive background includes responsibilities such as creating and supervising the STING Mentor/Mentee Program, managing summer school credit recovery, and serving as the Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) Chairperson. His comprehensive approach to education and administration will greatly benefit the William J. Clark Middle School community.

"Mr. McDuffie's commitment to student success and his proactive approach to addressing educational challenges make him an excellent addition to our leadership team. We are confident that his experience and vision will enhance the academic and social environment at William J. Clark Middle School," said Dr. Shawn D. Foster, Superintendent of Orangeburg County School District. "We look forward to the positive impact he will have on the students and staff."
