ERIC BROWN APPOINTED AS PRINCIPAL OF MARSHALL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District is pleased to announce the appointment of Eric Brown as the new Principal of Marshall Elementary School, effective July 1, 2024.

Mr. Brown brings a wealth of experience and a proven track record of excellence to his new role. He has been serving as the Principal of Edisto Elementary School in OCSD for the past four years. A 1992 graduate of South Carolina State University, Brown holds a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing, a Master's Degree in Elementary Education, and a Specialist Degree in Educational Administration, all from South Carolina State University.

With 25 years of experience in education spanning primary, elementary, middle, and collegiate levels, and 20 years in administration, Brown has led schools to achieve significant state and national recognition. Under his leadership, schools have won numerous awards, including the

State of South Carolina School of Promise Award, The State Department of Education Red Carpet Award (twice), The State of South Carolina Single Gender Initiative Award, The Palmetto Gold and Silver Awards, The National Association of Professional Development Schools Distinguished School Award, The South Carolina Exemplary Writing Award, and the prestigious Carolina First Palmetto's Finest Award.

"Mr. Brown's extensive experience and his dedication to promoting an environment of excellence make him an outstanding choice for Principal of Marshall Elementary School. His leadership has consistently resulted in notable achievements and recognition for his schools. We look forward to the positive impact he will bring to our students and staff," said Dr. Shawn D. Foster, Superintendent of Orangeburg County School District. "We are confident that his expertise and commitment to education will greatly benefit the Marshall Elementary community."
