

A SUMMER TRAINING INSTITUTE FOR TEACHERS: Accessing the Diverse History of Southern Maryland

Free with Lunch Included

OFFERING THREE DATES AND LOCATIONS:

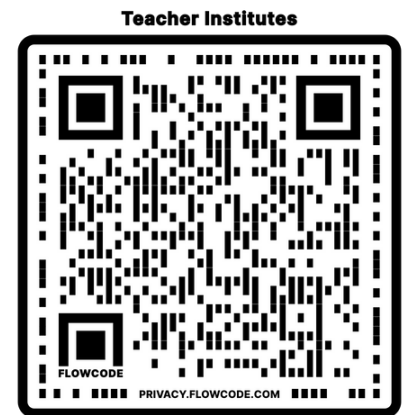

- June 25: 9 am – 4 pm at Calvert Marine Museum, Solomons
- July 17: 9 am – 4 pm at St. Mary's College of Maryland – in conjunction with Historic St. Mary's City
- August 2: 9 am – 4 pm at Piscataway Park in conjunction with the Accokeek Foundation

Choose date and location that works for you.
You must register in advance, by clicking here or scanning here:

EACH INSTITUTE WILL FEATURE:

- Hands on experience with a new website providing in-depth searchable access to the history of Black, Indigenous, and other People of Color across Southern Maryland. Geared to MSDE teaching standards.
- Learning about local Southern Maryland history and sign posts from local historian and archaeologist Dr. Julie King.
- An Expo of local institutions providing a wealth of information on the history and opportunities for field trips and classroom presentations.
- One MSDE CPD credit given with completion of Institute requirements

The institutes are brought to you by the Southern Maryland Equity in History Coalition including the support of 30 organizations – colleges, libraries, museums, community agencies, schools, and churches across the region. For questions, contact: smehc24@gmail.com

Scan, Select Event, Register

Registration information at 410-535-0291

This event is brought to you by the 30 supporting organizations of the Southern Maryland Equity in History Coalition, the sponsorship of St. Mary's College of Maryland, and through a grant from the Maryland Heritage Areas Authority.