The Fargo-West Fargo Public Schools Native American Education Program is hosting a celebration pow-wow for the 2024 Native American graduates of Fargo and West Fargo Public School Districts on Wednesday, May 15 in the Agassiz building. All Native American Education families have been invited to attend this celebration of Native American culture.

The evening will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a traditional feast. All 2024 graduates will be recognized and honored with an honor song and will receive a graduation gift.

Attendees will be invited to participate in inter-tribal songs, aimed at creating harmony among individuals of all races and heritages. The evening will conclude with a Round Dance. Frybread tacos and graduation cake will be served throughout the event until they are gone.
