

Students Grades 6-12

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time. If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

Think about how many students in your school do these things (None, Some, Most, All).

In this school:

- of the students stay on task in class.
- of the students care about doing well on work.
- of the students keep trying when the work is hard.

Think about how many teachers in your school do these things (None, Some, Most, All).

In this school:

- of my teachers expect me to work hard.
- of my teachers teach about people like me.
- of my teachers teach about topics I like.
- of my teachers give me chances to pick from different types of assignments.
- of my teachers give me chances to work with other students.
- of my teachers would give me extra help with my work if I needed it.
- of my teachers help me learn from my mistakes on work.
- of my teachers give me feedback that helps me improve my work.
- of my teachers explain how schoolwork will help me in the future.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

In this school:

- adults let students know how they should behave while in school.
- adults are fair to all groups of students when they apply the rules.
- adults help students make things right when they hurt others.
- adults recognize when I follow the rules and expectations.

I think the rules at our school are fair.
The rules help make my school a better place.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time during the school day (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

- I feel safe during the school day.
- I feel safe in my classrooms.
- I feel safe outside of the classroom.
- I feel safe on the way to and from school.
- I feel safe at school events or activities that happen after school hours. (Additional response option: "Not Applicable.")
- Adults at this school help keep everyone safe.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

Adults in my school:

- want to get to know me.
- would help me if I was being treated badly.
- treat me with respect.

Adults in my school respect students:

- of all races, ethnicities, and nationalities.
- of all sexual orientations.
- of all gender identities.
- of all ability levels.
- from all religions or cultures.
- whose families have more money or less money.

There are one or more adults in my school who really care about me.
I am comfortable speaking to an adult in my school if something is bothering me.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

Students at this school:

- help each other if they need it.
- are kind to one another.
- speak up if someone might hurt others.
- are able to resolve their problems with other students.
- discuss different points of view in a respectful way.
- are friends with students who are different from them (such as race, ethnicity, religion, gender).
- include students with disabilities in groups and activities.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

- I am proud to be a student at this school.
- I can be myself at this school.
- People at this school appreciate me for who I am.
- I feel like I belong at this school.
- I have one or more good friends at this school.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Not a Problem, A Small Problem, A Medium Problem, A Big Problem). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

Think about how much of a problem these things are in your school.

Students at this school:

- say mean things to each other in person.
- push, hit, or kick each other on purpose.
- leave other students out of groups or activities on purpose.
- are mean to each other online or through text.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Not a Problem, A Small Problem, A Medium Problem, A Big Problem). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

Think about how much of a problem these things are in your school.

Students at this school pick on each other because of:

- their race, ethnicity, or nationality.
- their religion or culture.
- their gender or gender expression.
- their sexual orientation.
- their academic or learning ability.
- their physical appearance.
- how they move or walk.
- how they speak.
- how much money their family has.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

Think about what you and other students learn in your school.

In my school we learn:

- ways to ask for help when we need it.
- ways to resolve problems with others.
- ways of showing our feelings.
- what to do when we feel stress.
- what to do when we have upset feelings.
- to stop and think before we do something.
- to recognize our personal strengths.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

Think about what you and other students learn in your school.

In my school we learn:

- how to reach our goals.
- how to make good choices.
- how our actions affect others.
- how to respect how others feel.
- how to make things right if we hurt others.
- how to value all cultures and identities.
- how to help the community outside of school.

Click the button that best matches how you feel most of the time (Strongly Disagree, Disagree, Agree, Strongly Agree). If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question.

In this school, I have chances to:

- share my ideas and opinions.
- help lead activities and events.
- participate in activities that help the community.

I have chances to help decide activities in the classroom or school.

I have chances to help make rules in the classroom or school.

I participate in clubs, groups, or other activities at school. (Additional response option: "Not Applicable.")

Please answer the questions below. If you are not sure how to answer, you can skip the question. Your answers are private; no one will know how you answered.

What grade are you in?

- 6th
- 7th
- 8th
- 9th
- 10th
- 11th
- 12th

How do you describe yourself? Click all that apply.

- Boy/Male
- Girl/Female
- Transgender
- Non-binary
- I use a different word(s)

Which of the following describe you? Click all that apply.

- American Indian or Alaska Native
- Asian
- Black or African-American
- Hispanic or Latino/a
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander
- White
- A group not listed here

Is English the main language spoken at home?

- Yes
- No