

General Personnel

Personnel Policies Goals

The district functions best when it employs highly qualified personnel, conducts appropriate staff development activities, and establishes policies and working conditions which are conducive to high morale and which enable each staff member to make the fullest contribution to district programs and services.

The goals of the district's personnel program shall include the following:

1. develop and implement those strategies and procedures for personnel recruitment, screening, and selection which will result in employing the best available candidates, i.e., those with highest capabilities, strongest commitment to quality education, and greatest probability of effectively implementing the district's learning program.
2. develop a general deployment strategy for the greatest contribution to the learning program, and to utilize it as the primary basis for determining staff assignments.
3. develop a climate in which optimum staff performance, morale, and satisfaction are produced.
4. provide positive programs of staff development designed to contribute both to improvement of the learning program and to each member's career development aspirations.
5. provide for a genuine team approach to education, including staff involvement in planning, decision-making, and evaluation.
6. provide compensation and benefits as well as other provisions for staff welfare.
7. develop and utilize for personnel evaluation positive processes which contribute to the improvement of both staff capabilities and the learning program.
