

SUMMER CAMPS 2024

Held at 700 East Market Street, York PA 17403: Union Lutheran Church East Campus

*The school district neither encourages nor discourages a student's participation in the activity described herein. This program is not operated by Spring Grove Area School District.

July 15-19 (1-week sessions)

RUPERT MEETS MRS. TALES, PRODUCTION Ages 8-12 (9am-4pm) $175

Participants will learn all the basics of live theatre from auditioning to performing. They will cover the art of creating a character, stage directions, and other theatre essentials. This camp is tailored for children with varying levels of theatre experience as well as students with physical or learning challenges.

STORY TO STAGE Ages 6-8 (9am-4pm) $175

Join us as we explore a few popular stories and decide which one to bring to life! We will learn how movement, vocalization, and characterization all play a part in taking a story from the page to the stage. We'll do hands-on activities to put together props, sets and costumes and create a mini-production all our own to present at the end of the week!

D&D INTRODUCTION Ages 12 and up (6:30pm-8:30pm) $50
(Ages 10 and 11 may register if accompanied by an adult camper)

D&D is a great way to foster imaginations and immerse people in a world of fantasy that teaches skills that will stick with them in the real world. Conflict resolution, problem solving, and adventure are all wrapped up in these role-playing games. This class is designed for people of all ages on how to play and enjoy the world of Dungeons and Dragons and other role-playing games. This camp does not have a sharing.*

July 22-26 (1-week session)

PLAY WRITING & READING! AGES 9-13 (9am -12pm) $80

We all have stories to tell. The easiest way to write them down is by way of a script. Why? Because a play is simply people talking to one another. If you can talk, you can write a play! Via games, observations, and interactions this camp will help you discover some of the playwright's secrets.

BACKSTAGE THEATRE ARTS SAMPLER Ages 11-18 (9am-4pm) $200

Learn from experienced theatre artists as you delve into three areas of theatre - Costume, Props and Make Up. Design and application will be taught. Each participant will be supplied with their own make-up kit.

D&D ADVANCED Ages 12 and up (6:30pm-8:30pm) $50

This class builds upon knowledge for those who already are familiar with the gameplay of D&D. Its emphasis is on group play, one-shot and campaign creation, and stepping into the role of Dungeon Master. This camp does not have a sharing.*

July 29-August 2 (1-week session)

PLAY WRITING & READING! AGES 14-18 (9AM-4PM)

$160

We all have stories to tell. The easiest way to write them down is by way of a script. Why? Because a play is simply people talking to one another. If you can talk, you can write a play! Via games, observations, and interactions this camp will help you discover some of the playwright's secrets.

STEP BACK IN TIME Ages 13-18 (6:30pm-8:30pm M-F/10:00am-2:00pm Saturday)

$100

Join Lady Rochester, Sir Willem and Master Young for evenings of Renaissance revelry. Learn some historical facts, songs, a dance or two and games from the time period. Connect with your inner Elizabethan and create your own persona to show off all you've learned.

*Campers need to bring their lunch. Family and friends are invited to a performance/sharing at the end of each camp.

Financial need scholarships are available.
