

ANNE JOSEPHINE GOANOS SCHOLARSHIP

Application for the 2024-2025 School Term

Anne Josephine Goanos was born in the Bronx to Irish immigrant parents. She was an ardent supporter of the Catholic Church and Catholic education, and two of her four children graduated from Red Bank Catholic. Anne was a successful Realtor at the Jersey Shore and had her own agency. Her son Larry, a 1980 graduate of RBC, did not want to attend the school but, he says, she tricked him into it. Today, he shares that attending RBC was one of the best experiences of his life and he is proud to be a graduate. The Goanos Family now honors their mother with this scholarship.

The Goanos Scholarship is a one-year partial scholarship that will be awarded to an incoming freshman student who has a parent in any aspect of the real estate industry. Their career may include real estate agent, broker, construction, insurance, title company, mortgage banker/broker, etc.
