

Middle School and Upper School Student Absences

When a student cannot attend school due to illness our priority is for that student to take the time to get well without undue academic pressure. Faculty are prepared to support them fully in their return to campus. Occasionally, a student may be medically unable to attend school, but still able to complete some schoolwork. We will accommodate when reasonable to support students in this situation.

Class/Course Page as a Resource

All assignments, documents, and resource materials/links for each class period will be posted no later than 8:00 AM each morning for that day.

Middle School: Google Classroom

Upper School: Microsoft Teams

Day to Day Medical or Emergency (1-2 days)

Student monitors class/course pages as they are able. Upon return, student initiates discussion with advisor and teachers to complete work missed work with their teacher.

Short Term Medical or Emergency (3-5 days)

Student monitors class/course pages as they are able and communicates with teacher/advisor about possible asynchronous work.

Long Term Medical or Emergency (6+ days)

Student works with advisor to develop an academic plan that might include the use of class pages, asynchronous work, and remotely joining important live classes.

Day to Day Personal Absences (1-2 days)

Student monitors class/course pages as they are able. Upon return, student initiates discussion with advisor and teachers to complete work missed work with their teacher.

Short Term Personal Absences (1-2 days)

Student communicates with the teacher at least 3 school days in advance and a plan will be developed that makes use of the class page and possibly asynchronous work.

Long Term Personal Absences (3+ days)

Student communicates with their advisor at least two weeks in advance and a plan is developed that makes use of the class page and asynchronous work.
