Westerly Public Schools Electronic Filing of Meeting Notices/ Minutes with the Secretary of State

No. 1071

Pursuant to Rhode Island General Laws 42-46-6 and 42-46-7, all public bodies must electronically file meeting notices and meeting minutes with the Secretary of State. The Open Meetings Law aims to increase public access to municipal and state government.

In accordance with the provisions of the Open Meeting Law, the Secretary of State has a web-based process designed to accept the electronic filing of such notices and minutes and has promulgated rules and regulations relating to the filing process. These rules and regulations are available for public inspection online at <https://www.sos.ri.gov/divisions/open-government-center> or at the Office of the Secretary of State, Public Information Division, located in Room 38 of the State House.

All information to be filed on behalf of Westerly Public Schools will be done through the Executive Assistant to the Superintendent.
