

School Year 2022-2023

School Highlight: Savant is unique because it provides a distinctive educational opportunity for inner-city children that focuses on financial literacy and entrepreneurship. The school implements the Never Too Young: Personal Finance for Young Learners curriculum, developed by The Council for Economic Education, to teach students skills such as credit, money management, budget, and philanthropy. Savant is dedicated to making sure that all students experience academic success and are prepared to become the future leaders of San Bernardino City.
