

POLICY

2005

4220

Administration

SUBJECT: ABOLISHING AN ADMINISTRATIVE POSITION

Existing administrative positions shall not be abolished by the Board of Education without previous written notification of the impending abolition. Such written notification is to be served to the individual currently holding that position. In all cases the individual currently holding the position should receive as much advance notice as possible and all such actions will take place in consonance with existing bargaining agreements.

Education Law Section 3013

Adopted: 8/10/05
Revised: