IV. ROUTINE MATTERS

Monthly Reports

Superintendent's Report: Sarah Bilotti

Some updates:

1. We have begun our internal budgeting process. Two factors that we are facing are increased healthcare costs and increased transportation costs. We are working to put together a budget that addresses both of these needs.

2. Our student course selections have begun, beginning with our February 27th meeting and going through March, we will have updates from the Supervisors as to new courses, innovative instruction, or other areas of highlight as we work through the scheduling season.

3. New student rep - Madeline Gibbs from Pascack Valley, other student reps not in attendance

Student Reports: Madeline Gibbs – Pascack Valley High School - report

Mr. Blundo commented that the ice hockey team is ranked #1 in the state in their bracket. The team is comprised of Pascack Valley, Pascack Hills and Park Ridge students. A great story on how the program grew. He asked Ms. Bilotti about the Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service.

Ms. Bilotti commented that this was started by Dr. Mark Russo, Supervisor of Math and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. He started this idea 3-4 years ago involving students and staff in a day of service. He worked in conjunction with Erica Fanceski in the guidance department and Barry Bachenheimer, the Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment. Dr. Russo's goal was 175 participants and about 350 students and staff participated in the event. Participants packed meals for food pantries, painting houses for Habitat for Humanity, students singing and performing for assisted living residents, students clearing trails at a nearby state park, central office staff played a trivia game with residents at an assisted living center. There were staff members with their children participating. She mentioned that they plan to grow this more next year. She indicated that custodians helped by driving participants to the various locations.
