Parent/Guardian Rights and Responsibilities

DID YOU KNOW? Parent engagement in schools improves student achievement and reduces absenteeism. Students with involved parents and guardians earn higher grades, have better social skills, and show improved behavior 😊😊

PARENT RIGHTS – Title I “Right to Know”

- Parents and guardians have the right to be actively engaged in their child’s education.
- Parents and guardians have the right to be treated fairly and respectfully by the school principal, teachers, and all school staff.
- Parents have the right to access information about the Harrisburg School District via Board policies, procedures, and attending public Board meetings.
- Parents and guardians have the right to be notified promptly if their child is disciplined for inappropriate or disruptive behavior and informed of the consequences assigned.
- Parents and guardians have the right to due process to appeal disciplinary actions taken.
- Parents and guardians have the right to receive information about their child’s academic and behavioral progress.
- Parents and guardians have the right to know, upon request, certain information on the professional qualifications of the student’s classroom teachers and paraprofessional providing services to their child.

Home Access Center for Parents and Guardians Harrisburg School District’s main web page provides Home Access Center to parents and guardians as a communication tool to support your child’s education. Home Access Center contains helpful information to help guide your children through the educational process. Day or night, parents and guardians can access this convenient web portal to see classwork, attendance, progress reports, and discipline records. You can also communicate directly with your child’s school principal and teachers. For questions, login-in instructions, contact the school office.

For the safety of students and staff, all persons entering school buildings must present valid photo identification for the Raptor System.
