

Late Start Classes

Late start classes are normally 10-weeks in duration and cover the same amount of material as classes that begin at the normal start date. They begin about four weeks after the beginning of the traditional semester and finish at the same time as regular classes. Because of the condensed schedule and potential for problems to arise, late start classes will be approved only when no other option is available for the student to meet high school graduation requirements.