

Tumwater School District Board Policy

PARENT AND STUDENT RIGHTS IN ADMINISTRATION OF SURVEYS, ANALYSIS OR EVALUATIONS

All instructional materials, including supplementary materials and teachers manuals, used with any survey, analysis or evaluation in a program or project supported by federal funds are available for inspection by parents and guardians.

No student will be required, without prior written consent of a parent or the consent of an adult student or emancipated minor, as part of any project or program supported by federal funds to participate in a survey, analysis or evaluation that reveals information concerning:

- Political affiliations;
- Potentially embarrassing mental or psychological problems;
- Sexual behavior and attitudes;
- Illegal, anti-social, self-incriminating or demeaning behavior;
- Critical appraisals of close family members;
- Privileged or similar relationships;
- Religious practices, affiliations, or beliefs of the student or student's parent; or
- Income other than information necessary to establish eligibility for a program; without the prior consent of adult or emancipated students, or written permission of parents.

The district will make arrangements to protect student privacy during the administration of surveys and the collections, disclosure or use of personal information for marketing, sales or other distribution purposes.
