

Social Studies Power Standards: 11th grade
Tumwater School District

U.S. History

History

- Understand themes and development during defined eras in U.S. History.
- Analyze cultures/cultural groups that have shaped U.S. History (1890 to present).
- Analyze and evaluates how technology and ideas have shaped U.S. History.
- Analyze differing interpretations of events in U.S. History.
- Analyze how an understanding of U.S. History can prevent problems today.

Economics

- Evaluate the role of U.S. government in regulating a market economy in the past/present.
- Analyze and evaluate how people in the U.S. have addressed issues with the distribution of resources and sustainability.

Geography

- Analyze cultural interactions.

Civics

- Analyze and evaluate the ways in which the U.S. Constitution and other fundamental documents promote key ideals/principles.
- Analyze and evaluate the cause/effects of U.S. foreign policy on people in the U.S. and world.