Lemonade War!

Last month, Smoketown had the privilege of hosting the author of our all-school read aloud, Jacquline Davies! Students got a chance to attend presentations by Jacquline, ask questions, and some students were able to get their books signed by the author.

During recess, PTO sponsored a "lemonade stand" for all students and faculty to enjoy a cup of lemonade. Thank you all for your continued support for us to be able to make these fun events happen for the kids.
