

Conestoga Valley

SCHOOL DISTRICT

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI 2013-2014

DOUG CODY, CLASS OF 1978

A partner in The Cody Law Firm, Doug focuses his practice in the area of criminal law. He earned a law degree from Temple University and an undergraduate degree from Susquehanna. He served as a teacher and coach with the School District of Lancaster from 1982-1986. He also began and coached the Penn Manor High School swimming program. At CV, he served as president of the CV Basketball Booster Club, and currently runs the CV youth boys' basketball program for the boys. He was also on the CV Youth Soccer board and served as a soccer coach for 10 years. He received a Community Service Award from Crispus Attucks for his work as an officer at the community center.

JAY F. CUSTER, CLASS OF 1972

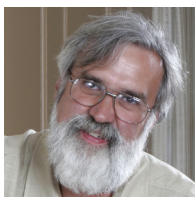

Director of the University of Delaware's Center for Archeological Research, Dr. Custer has conducted archeological surveys resulting in the discovery of more than 1,500 sites across four states. He is the author of five books and serves as associate managing editor for "Abstracts in Anthropology" journal. He received awards from the Society for Pennsylvania Archeology, Archeological Society of Delaware, Delaware DOT and Federal Highway Administration. He also volunteers his expertise with various local historic preservation groups and local Native American groups on cultural preservation projects.

GINA M. JAEGER, CLASS OF 1977

Following a distinguished career in the U.S. Navy, Jaeger is currently CEO of the Girls Scouts of California's Central Coast. She was previously assistant deputy chief of staff at the Naval Bureau of Medicine and Surgery in Washington, D.C., where she drafted policy and prioritized medical logistics support systems and services for sailors and their families. She also served as senior health care policy analyst for the Office of the Secretary of the Navy. She holds a B.S. from Bloomsburg University and MBA from Golden Gate University.

JEFFERY D. LOHR, CLASS OF 1970

Lohr has been a professional furniture maker, woodworker and teacher for 35 years. Originally trained to be a woodworking teacher, he graduated from Millersville in 1976 with a B.S. in Industrial Arts with his post graduate work done in Fine Art at West Chester University. Lohr taught the woodworking program at Norristown Area High School for 13 years until leaving the public school teaching profession in 1989 to devote his full attention to his own studio furniture work. With his wife, Lohr founded the Moringa Community, which helps people in Ghana, West Africa, by providing training in food preservation/nutrition, agriculture, weaving, soap making and machine-based woodworking.

ALLEN B. UYEDA, CLASS OF 1967

CV's first-ever state champion wrestler, Uyeda has distinguished himself in business. Though he graduated from Princeton with a degree in electrical engineering, he later earned an MBA from Wharton and he worked for many years in finance, engineering and now insurance. He heads the oldest and largest insurance company in Hawaii and is on the board of First Hawaiian Bank and a member of the Hawaii Business Roundtable among other civic organizations. He previously served on the Board of Regents at Chaminade University.

2110 Horseshoe Road, Lancaster, PA 17601

Phone: 717.397.2421

www.ConestogaValley.org

Fax: 717.397.0442