CONESTOGA VALLEY MIDDLE SCHOOL

STEVEN NOLT, PH.D.

CLASS OF 1987

Steven Nolt is one of the nation's leading scholars of the Amish and Mennonite communities. He recently accepted an appointment as Senior Scholar at the Young Center for Anabaptist and Pietist Studies at Elizabethtown College, replacing perhaps the nation's authority on the Plain Sect. He previously served as professor and chair of the History and Political Science Department at Goshen (Ind.) College and is the author of 13 books, including Amish Grace (2007) on the Nickel Mines school shooting, named a Best Book by Publisher's Weekly.

NOEL RESSLER, MD, MPH

CLASS OF 1999

Currently an emergency medicine physician at UPMC Passavant, a University of Pittsburgh-affiliated hospital, Dr. Noel Ressler has worked on humanitarian activities worldwide. He served as consultant for Johanniter International Assistance, which provides primary healthcare to displaced populations in Sudan, and Saferworld, which provides logistics for small arms reductions in violent regions. He also interned for Ecumenical Advocacy Alliance and the Catholic Medical Mission Board providing HIV/AIDS advocacy work.

A. DALE WEAVER, CPA

CLASS OF 1973

Dale Weaver is an Executive Director - Tax for EY (Ernst & Young) in Philadelphia serving multinational manufacturing and technology companies. In addition to his client responsibilities, Weaver leads engagement quality reviews for the firm throughout the U.S. He has served broadly in the local community, including as a ruling elder of Westminster Presbyterian Church. Throughout his career, Dale has served as an appointed member of various committees of the both the Pennsylvania and American Institutes of CPAs.

LT. COL. LEONARD A. ZIGMENT, USAF

CLASS OF 1967

Lt. Col. Leonard Ziment concluded a 23-year career in the U.S. Air Force in 1994, where his positions included headquarters deputy division chief and branch chief as well as NATO tactical evaluation team chief. He later taught mathematics at a low-income high school in Colorado Springs, earning two Teacher of the Year awards. He has been an officer in the national service fraternity Alpha Phi Omega and volunteered with Boy and Girl Scouts. The Colorado Springs parks and recreation department also named him its Volunteer of the Year.
